

The CJM Plumbing-Kieran McGann Memorial Scholarship

Description of Scholarship- Chris McGann is a 2005 graduate of Cornwall Central High School. Chris successfully completed the CTEC program and opened his own plumbing business right here in Cornwall. Chris credits the start of his success to his dad Neal McGann, his uncles, the hardworking teachers and staff at CCHS and the CTEC program. To honor his dad and the memory of his Uncle Kieran McGann, Chris is donating (2) scholarships in the amount of $1000 each to two students who have successfully completed the CTEC program

Amount of the Award- (2)$1000 scholarships to be awarded to 2 individuals.

Type of Award- One time payable to recipient, non-renewable

Eligibility- Cornwall Central High School graduating Seniors- must be a 2 year CTEC program student. Minimum 2.5 GPA or higher (75 average).

Candidates need to complete the following:

Minimum 100 word essay answering the following questions :

- 1) Why the recipient chose his/her trade program at CTEC
- 2) What their experience at CTEC has meant to them
- 3) If awarded, what they will do with the scholarship money.

Candidates may apply to this scholarship using the Google Form listed below. Please use the QR code to access the Google Form.

Deadline- May 1st by 11:59pm