

4th Grade ELA Curriculum Map Revised 2024

Standard: Writing

Fourth Grade

4W1: Write an argument to support claim(s), using clear reasons and relevant evidence

- 4W1a: Introduce a precise claim, supported by well-organized facts and details, and organize the reasons and evidence logically
- 4W1b: Use precise language and content-specific vocabulary
- 4W1c: Use transitional words and phrases to connect ideas within categories of information
- 4W1d: Provide a concluding statement or section related to the argument presented

4W2: Write informative/explanatory texts to explore a topic and convey ideas and information relevant to the subject

- 4W2a: Introduce a topic clearly and organize related information in paragraphs and sections
- 4W2b: Develop ideas on a topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, or other relevant information; include text features when useful for aiding comprehension
- 4W2c: Use precise language and content-specific vocabulary
- 4W2d: Use transitional words and phrases to connect ideas within categories of information
- 4W2e: Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented

4W3: Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences

- 4W3a: Establish a situation and introduce a narrator and/or characters
- 4W3b: Use dialogue and description of actions, thoughts, and feelings to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations
- 4W3c: Use transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events
- 4W3d: Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely
- 4W3e: Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events

4W4: Create a poem, story, play, artwork, or other response to a text, author, theme, or personal experience

4W5: Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to respond and support analysis, reflection, and research by applying the grade 4 Reading Standards

4W6: Conduct research to answer questions, including self-generated questions, and to build knowledge through investigating multiple aspects of a topic

4W7: Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from multiple sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources.

Writing Skills: Ongoing Throughout the Year

*Stronger Focus On Narrative Writing First Trimester

- Begin with a compelling lead to capture reader's attention
- Reread writing to check meaning, accuracy, and clarity of expression
- Write an effective lead paragraph and conclusion
- Develop a plot that includes tension and one or more scenes
- Use concrete sensory details and descriptive language to develop plot (tension and problem resolution) and setting in memoir, biography, and fiction
- Show the problem of the story and how characters respond to it
- Describe characters by how they look, what they do, say, and think, and what others say about them
- Show rather than tell how characters feel
- Write a believable and satisfying ending to the story
- Use words that show the passage of time
- Add transitional words and phrases to clarify meaning and make the writing smoother
- Present ideas clearly and in a logical sequence
- Organize information according to purpose and genre
- Use paragraphs to organize ideas
- Use well-crafted transitions to support the pace and flow of the writing

*Stronger Focus On Informative/Explanatory Writing Second Trimester

- Begin with a compelling lead to capture reader's attention
- Provide information that teaches or informs readers about a topic
- Write an effective lead paragraph and conclusion
- Include facts, figures, statistics, and anecdotes when appropriate
- Use quotes from experts (written texts, speeches, or interviews) when appropriate
- Present ideas clearly and in a logical sequence
- Organize information according to purpose and genre
- Show topics and subtopics by using headings and subheadings
- Use paragraphs to organize ideas
- Gather and internalize information and then write it in own words
- Use notes to record and organize information

*Stronger Focus On Argument to Support a Claim Writing Third Trimester

- Begin with a compelling lead to capture reader's attention
- Provide information that teaches or informs readers about a topic
- Write an effective lead paragraph and conclusion
- Include facts, figures, statistics, and anecdotes when appropriate
- Add transitional words and phrases to clarify meaning and make the writing smoother
- Make notes about a text as evidence to support opinions and statements in discussion and writing
- Provide evidence from the text or from personal experience to support written statements about a text

- Use spelling patterns, rules, and generalizations (e.g., word families, position-based spellings, syllable patterns, ending rules, meaningful word parts) in writing words
- Spell grade-appropriate words correctly, consulting references as needed
- Use quotation marks or italics to indicate titles of works

Grammar:

- Recognize and use the eight parts of speech of the English language.
- Recognize and use nouns.
- Recognize and use subject-verb agreement.
- Recognize and use pronoun-antecedent agreement.
- Recognize and use sentences with various structures.
- Recognize and use sophisticated connectives.
- Recognize and use the three forms of comparison with adjectives and adverbs.
- Understand the functions of capital letters and use capitalization correctly.
- Understand the functions of marks of punctuation and use punctuation correctly.
- Recognize and use interjections.
- Recognize and use phrases and understand their functions in sentences.
- Use complete sentences and avoid common sentence problems in writing.

4L3: Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

- 4L3a: Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.
- 4L3b: Choose punctuation for effect.
- 4L3c: Distinguish between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion).

4L4: Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.

- 4L4a: Use context (e.g., definitions, examples, or restatements in text) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- 4L4b: Use common, grade-appropriate Greek and Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., telegraph, photograph, autograph).
- 4L4c: Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses) to find the pronunciation and determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases.

4L5: Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

- 4L5a: Explain the meaning of simple similes and metaphors in context.
- 4L5b: Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs.

- 4L5c: Demonstrate understanding of words by relating them to their antonyms and synonyms.
- 4L6: Acquire and accurately use general academic and content-specific words and phrases, including those that signal precise actions, emotions, states of being (e.g., quizzed, whined, stammered) and that are basic to a particular topic (e.g., wildlife, conservation, and endangered when discussing animal preservation).

Skills:

- Recognize and use interjections
- Recognize and use the four types of sentences
- Recognize and use sophisticated connectives
- Recognize and use academic connectives
- Recognize and use the three forms of comparison with adjectives and adverbs
- Recognize words with affixes (prefixes and suffixes) as well as base words
- Understand the meaning of words (Tier 2) that appear often in literature but go beyond oral vocabulary, many poetic or literary
- Understand the meaning of a few words from the scientific domain (Tier 3)
- Use contextual information to solve the meaning of new words
- Understand the meaning of words used figuratively
- Use background information, illustrations, and reference tools to understand the meaning of content words
- Recognize and use synonyms
- Recognize and use antonyms
- Recognize and use words with multiple meanings: e.g., cover, degree, organ
- Recognize and discuss the fact that some words have literal and figurative meanings
- Recognize and use similes to make a comparison
- Recognize and use metaphors to make a comparison
- Recognize and discuss the fact that commonly used idioms have meanings different from the meanings of the separate words
- Understand and discuss the concept of prefixes and recognize their use in determining the meaning of some English words
- Understand and discuss the concept of Greek roots and recognize their use in determining the meaning of some English words
- Recognize and use phrases and understand their functions in sentences.
- Recognize and use sophisticated connectives
- Recognize and use academic connectives
- Recognize and use the three forms of comparison with adjectives and adverbs

Standard: Reading Literary and Informational

Fourth Grade

- 4R1: Locate and refer to relevant details and evidence when explaining what a text says explicitly/implicitly and make logical inferences (R1 & RL)
- 4R2: Determine a theme or central idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize a text (RI & RL)
- 4R3: In literary texts, describe a character, setting, or event, drawing on specific details in the text (RL) In informational texts, explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts, including what happened and why, based on specific evidence from the text (RI)
- 4R4: Determine the meaning of words, phrases, figurative language, academic, and content-specific words (RI & RL)
- 4R5: In literary texts identify and analyze structural elements, using terms such as verse, rhythm, meter, characters, settings, dialogue, stage directions (RI)
- 4R6: In literary texts, compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first and third person narration (RL)
- 4R7: Identify information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g.: in charts, graphs, diagrams, tim lines, animations, illustrations, and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text (RI & RL)
- 4R8: Explain how claims in a text are supported by relevant reasons and evidence (RI & RL)
- 4R9: Recognize genres and make connections to other texts, ideas, cultural perspectives, eras, personal events, and situations (RI & RL)

Reading Skills: Ongoing Throughout the Year

Ongoing Reading Comprehension Strategies

- Understand that there are different types of texts and that they have different characteristics
- Notice and understand some elements of poetry: e.g., figurative language, rhyme, repetition, onomatopoeia, layout/line breaks (shape), imagery, alliteration, assonance
- Notice the narrator of a text and notice a change in perspective
- Derive the meaning of words from the context of a sentence, paragraph, or the whole story
- Understand the connotative meanings of words that are essential to understanding the text
- Use some academic language to talk about literary features: e.g., beginning, ending, character, main character, events, character change, message, dialogue, setting, flashback, conflict, resolution, theme, descriptive language, simile
- Acquire new ideas, information, perspectives, and attitudes from reading parts in scripts and poems
- Understand the meaning of words (Tier 2) that appear often in literature but go beyond oral vocabulary, many poetic or literary
- Use contextual information to solve the meaning of new words
- Discuss with others how a script or poem should be read and state reasons based on plot, characters, meaning
- Gain insight into perspectives of characters in fiction and real historical characters
- Distinguish among various forms of manuscript used for performance: e.g., poems, readers' theater scripts, choral reading scripts, plays, letters, diaries, journal entries, short stories
- Read grade-level text across genres orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings.
- Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary
- Use some academic language to talk about plays and performance: e.g., line, speech, scene, act, actor, actress, role, part, hero, villain, playwright
- Derive the meaning of new words and expand the meaning of known words using flexible strategies: e.g., context in a sentence; connections to other words; synonyms and antonyms; word parts; base words and affixes; word function in a sentence
- Actively and consistently add to vocabulary through reading
- Describe changing perspective as a story unfolds
- Understand first-, third-, and second-person narrative
- Understand the perspective from which a story is told and talk about why a writer selected it
- Notice a change of perspective and/or narrator within the larger text and hypothesize why the writer has presented the text in this way
- Relate important information and concepts in one text and connect to information and concepts in other texts
- Notice the organization of nonfiction text, distinguishing between expository and narrative structure
- Notice a nonfiction writer's use of narrative text structure in biography and narrative nonfiction
- Recognize and understand a writer's use of underlying text structures: e.g., categorical, description, sequence (chronological, temporal), compare and contrast, cause and effect, problem and solution, question and answer, combination
- Notice a nonfiction writer's use of categories and subcategories to organize an informational text
- Notice and acquire an understanding of new vocabulary from read-aloud content
- Acquire new content words from texts and graphics
- Notice and understand the meaning of some domain-specific words (Tier 3)
- Understand some words particular to academic disciplines (Tier 3)
- Understand and acquire content-specific words that require the use of strategic actions (i.e., using definitions within the body of a text, the glossary or other reference tools)
- Understand key words in graphics such as maps, diagrams, and charts
- Use knowledge in one text to understand content in another text
- Understand that a nonfiction book may be procedural (i.e., "how-to")
- Understand that the information and ideas in a text are related to each other and notice how the author presents this
- Recognize a writer's use of underlying text structures: e.g., description, cause and effect, chronological sequence, temporal sequence, categorization, comparison and contrast, problem and solution, question and answer
- Think across nonfiction texts to construct knowledge of a topic
- Think across texts to compare and expand understanding of content and ideas from academic disciplines: e.g., social responsibility, environment, climate, history, social and geological history, cultural groups

- Identify Main Idea
- Supporting Details
- Theme/Central Idea (4.R.2)
- Synthesizing Information
- Fact & Opinion
- Making Inferences (4.R.1)
- Compare & Contrast
- Sequencing
- Cause & Effect
- Drawing Conclusions
- Story Elements (4.R.3)
- Using Context Clues (4.R.4)
- Author's Purpose
- Nonfiction Text Features
- Problem/Solution
- Genres (4.R.9)
- Mood
- Point of View (4.R.6)
- Multiple-meaning words and phrases
- Antonyms/Synonyms
- Figurative Language (alliteration, similes, metaphors, idioms, proverbs, adages) (4.L.5abc)
- Identify/Analyze Structural Elements (verse, rhythm, meter, characters, settings, dialogue, state directions) (4.R.5)
- Retelling
- Summarizing

- Recognize a writer's use of the techniques for persuasion in a persuasive text
- Critically examine the quality or accuracy of the text, citing evidence for opinions
- Notice how illustrations and graphics help to communicate the writer's message
- Understand that graphics and text are carefully placed in a nonfiction text so that ideas are communicated clearly
- Think critically and discuss the relationship between the voice (rate, volume, word stress, pausing, phrasing, intonation) and the meaning of the script or poem
- Notice how the writer communicates the messages in a story, poem, or the dialogue of a script
- Make connections among texts by noting similarities: e.g., genre, form, text structure, characters, literary language, use of dialogue
- Notice aspects of the writer's craft by looking at an enlarged page with the group
- Infer information from nonfiction illustrations and book and print features
- Talk about illustrations and book and print features and evaluate whether they help readers understand information and add interest
- Use knowledge from one text to understand content in another text
- Access background knowledge acquired from reading to understand the content of texts
- Infer the meaning of a range of graphics that require reader interpretation and are essential to comprehending the text
- Notice how the writer uses graphics to convey information that complements the body of the text
- Assess how graphics add to the quality of the text or provide additional information
- Talk critically about what a writer does to make a topic interesting or important

Standard: Reading Fluency

4RF4: Read grade-level text with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension

- 4RF4a: Read grade-level text across genres orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings
- 4RF4b: Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary

Fluency Skills: Ongoing throughout the year

- Solve words using a flexible range of strategies to access different sources of information
- After practice, read all words quickly and automatically
- Use line breaks to guide phrasing when reading poetry in chorus or individually
- Adjust the voice to reflect dialogue in the body of the text
- Read orally with the integration of all dimensions of fluency (e.g., pausing, phrasing, word stress, intonation, and rate) alone and while maintaining unison with others
- Recognize and reflect punctuation with the voice: e.g., period, question mark, exclamation point, dash, comma, ellipses, when reading in chorus or individually
- When reading individually or in unison with others, adjust the voice to reflect the mood of the text: e.g., sadness, tension, joy, humor
- Understand the role of the voice in communicating meaning in reader's theater, choral reading, songs, and poetry
- Read a part in a play or readers' theater script in a way that reflects the dialogue and the attributes and emotions of characters
- Self-correct covertly prior to or after error with little over self-correction
- Use understanding of plot, setting, and character to monitor and correct reading
- Read orally with appropriate phrasing, pausing, intonation, word stress, and rate
- Read silently at a slightly faster rate than when reading orally while maintaining comprehension and accuracy
- Read parts in a script with demonstration of all dimensions of fluency

Standard: Speaking and Listening

4SL1: Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions with diverse partners, expressing ideas clearly, and building on those of others.

- 4LS1a: Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.
- 4SL1b: Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
- 4SL1c: Pose and respond to specific questions to clarify or follow up on information, and make comments that contribute to the discussion and link to the remarks of others.
- 4SL1d: Review the relevant ideas expressed and explain their own ideas and understanding of the discussion.

4SL4: Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace and volume appropriate for the audience.

4SL5: Include digital media and/or visual displays in presentations to emphasize central ideas or themes.

4SL6: Distinguish between contexts that call for formal English versus/or informational discourse; use formal English when appropriate to task and situation.

Reading Skills: Ongoing Throughout the Year

- Ask questions to deepen understanding of a text
- Refer to important information and details and use as evidence to support opinions and statements during discussion
- Tell a summary of a text after hearing it read
- Give reasons (either text-based or from personal experience) to support thinking
- Use evidence from the text to support statements about the text
- Use evidence from the text to support a wide range of predictions
- Form and express opinions about a text and support with rationale and evidence
- Form and state the basis for opinions about authors and illustrators
- Analyze how a speaker uses evidence and examples effectively
- Sustain a conversation with a variety of audiences
- Use turn-taking with courtesy in small-group discussion
- Use appropriate conventions in small-group discussion: e.g., "I agree with _____ because..."; "I'd like to change the subject..."
- Use conventional techniques that encourage others to talk: e.g., "What do you think?" "Do you agree? Why or why not?"
- Respond to others' ideas before changing the subject
- Build on the talk of others by making statements related to the speaker's topic and by responding to cues
- Ask follow-up questions during partner, small-group, and whole-class discussion
- Relate or compare one's own knowledge and experience with information from others
- Listen and respond to a partner by agreeing, disagreeing or adding on, and explaining reasons
- Restate points that have been made and extend or elaborate on them
- Play the role of group leader when needed
- Evaluate one's own part in a group discussion as well as the effectiveness of the group
- Recall information, big ideas, or points made by others
- Demonstrate an understanding of a topic by providing relevant facts and details
- Speak with appropriate volume for audience size and location
- Speak at an appropriate rate to be understood
- Enunciate words clearly enough to be understood by a small group or the class (with regional and other accents being acceptable)
- Have an audience in mind before starting to speak
- Maintain a clear focus on the important or main ideas
- Present ideas and information in a logical sequence
- Have a clear introduction, body, and conclusion to your topic
- Choose clear examples that are related to the topic
- Use underlying structural patterns common for expository topics: e.g., description, cause and effect, chronological sequence, temporal sequence, compare and contrast, problem and solution
- Have a plan or notes to support the presentation
- Understand and use words related to familiar experiences and topics as well as some content and technical terms from academic disciplines
- Use language appropriate for oral presentations
- Use graphics (e.g., diagrams, illustrations, sidoshows, other digital media) to communicate meaning or to enhance a presentation

- Integrate technology tools (e.g., slideshows, video, audio) into multimedia presentations

Assessments

- STAR
- Writing Assessments (each trimester)
- Teacher Assessments
- Informal Assessments
